1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ the idea of Hungary's appealing to the United Nations for intervention after the Russian evacuation, as reported by C.L. Sulzberger in a New York Times article from Paris dated 16 February 1947, is believed to have originated in the United States with Tibor Eckhardt and circles close to him. A letter was written by a friend of Eckhardt's to an important Small Holders Party official in Hungary offering the suggestion of appeal to the United Nations as the ultimate solution of the current crisis.
